Bio

Nick Earle and Joe Coffin are emerging blues artists from St. John's, NL who released their debut album "Nick Earle and Joe Coffin Live at The Citadel House", earning them the 2016 Canadian Folk Music Award for Young Performers of the Year as well as a Music NL nomination for Jazz/Blues Recording of the Year. Adopting a distinctive style which is well beyond their years, they draw inspiration from blues greats such as Robert Johnson, Eric Clapton and Muddy Waters. Rich soulful vocals and exceptional guitar playing are just two of the descriptions that come to mind when watching these two execute their skills. Earle and Coffin have already performed with many of Newfoundland's top roots and blues musicians and have learned to demonstrate the utmost professionalism and style.
